

PRIVATE BANKER AND MAN OF GOD

With just 16 years of experience in the banking industry, it is quite an extraordinary achievement that Sandile is now a Regional Manager for ABSA Private Banking. It is a role that comes with the huge responsibility of leading a team of private bankers in optimising clients' economic value and delivering exceptional service.

Sandile Masengemu - Class of '00

Armed with an accounting diploma from MUT which he obtained in 2002, Sandile has scooped a number of awards including that of being the community builder of the year in 2012. He is also a certified coach and has coached a number of managers.

Outside of his life as a respected executive in the banking sector, Sandile is a God-fearing man. At his tender age he is a pastor at the Voice of Victory Church in Durban and also serves as CFO for the Voice of Victory Church in Ladysmith, with over 1200 members.

He is a motivational speaker who enjoys his time out with family and loves helping and giving back to the community.
